

ABOUT US

Our record of 2018 achievements for the benefit of:

Investors and stockholders

(find more in "Investor and Stockholder Relations")

OAO Interregional Distribution Grid Company of Urals or IDGC of Urals for short (est. in Feb. 2005) is the core grid operator, liable for electricity transmission and connection of individuals and legal entities to the electric networks, in the Sverdlovsk, Perm and Chelyabinsk regions.

FY2017 dividends: RUB 1,888.5 million

Consumers

(find more in "Electricity Transmission", "Investments" and "Technological Connection")

Net supply: 61.5 billion kWh

Facilities commissioned: 2.9 thousand km of power lines, 457 MVA of transformer capacity

Connection contracts executed: 26.3 thousand.

Capacity installed: 694 MW

Suppliers and contractors

(find more in "Supplier Relationship Management")

Total purchases of goods and services: RUB 27.0 billion

Employees

(find more in "Human Resources Management")

Jobs: 15.5 thousand (average payroll at the year-end)

1,002 employees visited health resorts

923 employees' children visited health camps

1,630 employees got ministerial, industry and corporate awards

State and society

(find more in "Analysis of Revenues and Expenses" and "Environment Protection")

Income tax and other payments: RUB 0.3 billion

Environmental costs: RUB 24.2 million

"Polluter pays" charges: RUB 766.7 thousand

What is digital transformation of the network?

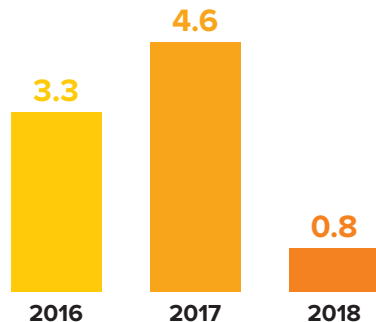

Digital transformation of the network is optimization and/or rearrangement of technological or corporate processes through implementation of big data analytics. Standardized formats and interaction mechanisms of data exchange between corporate and technological information systems allow combining corporate information systems and, therefore, ensure a transparent and credible automated data exchange, excluding duplication of information and manual uploading of data.

Key figures

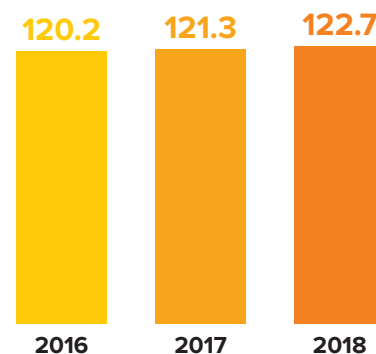

Revenues, RUB billion

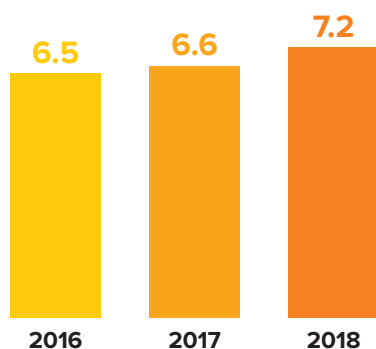

Net income, RUB billion

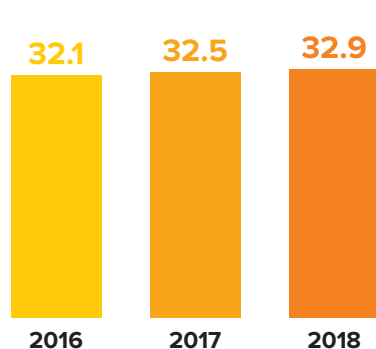

Length of aerial power lines, thousand km

Length of cable power lines, thousand km

Substations, thousand

Station capacity, GVA

